Position Available: Lead Housing Organizer

The NWBCCC is a 45-year old grassroots member-led community-based organization that unites individuals and institutions to fight for racial and economic justice. NWBCCC is a membership-based organization that uses direct action community organizing to address affordable housing, public education, immigrant rights, youth, voting rights, economic development and jobs issues, and to fight for broader policy change in these and other areas.

We believe that our organizing work should be led by our members, and that developing leadership is a key responsibility of our organizers. Thus, the Lead Housing organizer's main responsibilities will be to:

- Supervise 3 Full Time Housing Organizers and 1 Part time Housing Organizer
- Support the continued development of the NWBCCC Housing Committee and staff the Housing Justice Steering Committee
- Conduct strategic tenant organizing of multi-family buildings
- Base-building through membership recruitment of community and faith-based institutions
- Conduct leadership development to build the capacity of community leaders and members
- Run local and citywide housing campaigns that address systemic housing inequality, displacement and gentrification.
- Coordinate with other issue area committees to engage in the broader work of the organization
- Work with other Lead Organizers to connect Housing Justice Campaigns with other areas of work and vice versa.
- Assist in writing reports to current housing funders, create and organize funding documentation and assist with grant development
- Attend bi-weekly staff and lead meetings

Requirements:

- Minimum three years experience in organizing
- Supervisory experience
- Experience with door-knocking and/or phone banking
- Demonstrated commitment and passion for social justice and understanding of community organizing approach to social change.
- Fluency in Spanish and English.
