Cooper Square Mutual Housing Association II, HDFC Resident Relations Specialist

Status: Non-Exempt

Position: Full-time, 35 hours/week

Cooper Square Mutual Housing Association II HDFC (CSMHA II) is a nationally recognized low-income housing cooperative and community organization formed in 1995 on the Lower East Side of Manhattan. Our mission is to manage and preserve a co-op of 21 buildings so that they are permanently affordable to low-income residents, under principles of economic and social justice embodied in our community's history. CSMHA II is the product of local residents organizing against their own displacement and governance of the co-op by local residents remains a central dynamic in our organization. The CSMHA II also acts as managing agent to several other buildings outside of the CSMHA II co-op. All together, the organization is responsible for maintaining over 400 units of affordable housing.

To achieve our mission, CSMHA II works closely with two affiliated organizations:

- The Cooper Square Community Land Trust, which owns and stewards the land under our buildings;
- The Cooper Square Committee, which created our organization and provides social services to our residents.

Resident Relations Specialists are the primary point of contact between residents who live in our housing and our organization, which manages the housing. The Resident Relations Specialist (RRS) works with residents and staff to identify and resolve a wide variety of issues including:

- building and apt. maintenance issues,
- building and apt. repair issues,
- resident-caused issues that can impact the household or building, (clutter, unsanitary conditions, criminal activity, etc.)
- non-payment issues,
- conflicts between residents.

The RRS conducts regular building meetings to get feedback from residents and share information. The RRS also conducts regular apartment and building-wide inspections to assess housing conditions and other issue that need to be addressed. The RSS is a property management position but also involves activities typically associated with resident advocacy, social work and tenant organizing.
