

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York is currently seeking a:

Housing CEO:

As we celebrate the Centennial of Catholic Charities, the Archdiocese Housing Division is seeking a Housing Leader to play a significant strategic role.

This Housing Executive will oversee and manage the increasingly complex and growing effort of the Archdiocesan housing activities of the ANYCH and NYIHD. The principal areas of responsibility are: to oversee and manage the staff and activities of the ANYCH and the NYIHD in the preservation of the current housing portfolio and in the development of new rehabilitation and building projects; to direct and manage the compliance staff and its work in assuring the fiscal, program, and governance integrity of the local housing entities; and, to be the principal liaison with the Boards and Executive Committees of the ANYCH and NYIHD.

The Housing Executive must possess the ability to instill confidence in both internal and external constituents, to lead and direct the Archdiocese's housing initiatives, and must have extensive experience that encompasses oversight of complex organizations and experience with managing fiscal, program, and compliance staff. Must also have extensive experience and demonstrated leadership in the field of affordable housing development, including the financing of affordable housing. The ideal candidate will possess an advance graduate degree in finance, public administration, architecture, engineering, law, or a related degree with a minimum of 10 yrs. Experience; however minimum of Bachelor's degree will be considered for a strong candidate.

Please e-mail resume and cover letter with salary requirements to cccsjobs@archny.org or fax to (212) 826-8795.