Since 1976, DOROT has provided food, companionship, education, and cultural enrichment to thousands of elderly New Yorkers and those who care for them. Located on New York's Upper West Side, DOROT is a non-sectarian, culturally Jewish agency open to all seniors, caregivers, and volunteers.

Homelessness Prevention Program and Aftercare

For seniors who are homeless or facing homelessness, DOROT's Homelessness Prevention Program (HPP), a transitional residence in Manhattan, offers safe, temporary housing; meals; counseling; and assistance in finding a permanent home. Volunteers contribute to the social atmosphere by serving meals and interacting with the residents. DOROT's Aftercare program provides clients with ongoing services after they move into permanent housing.

This program is available to seniors 60 or older who are homeless or facing homelessness. An interview with a DOROT social worker is required.

Project Open House

The Mayor's Office for People with Disabilities ("MOPD") is pleased to announce the open enrollment application process for Project Open House (POH). The POH mission is to remove "small" readily achievable architectural barriers within an individual's home for qualified applicants with a permanent disability, thereby assisting in gaining greater independence.

MOPD works hand in hand with City agencies to assure that the voice of the disabled community is represented, and that programs and policies address the needs of the community. POH is administered by MOPD and the NYC Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD"), and provides for the removal of readily achievable residential barriers that do not require obtaining a permit from the NYC Department of Buildings ("DOB") and do not require the professional services of a NYS Licensed Architect.

Some examples of work covered under this program:

- Widening doorways within non-structural partitions;
- Conversion of steps into ramps no greater than 18" in height;
- Replacing existing plumbing fixtures with accessible fixtures;
- Removal of sink base cabinets to provide an accessible work surface and/or a sink;
- Installation of accessible amenities such as grab bars, door openers, accessible door handles, accessible height shelving;
- Installing accessible railings;
- Installation / conversion of residential doorbell and/or smoke and carbon monoxide detectors when an audible or visual system is needed; and
- Other barrier removals that may be required by individuals with disabilities subject to review by MOPD.

Applicants must submit their Registration Form to MOPD no later than Thursday, October 10th, 2013. Applicants are urged to submit the application via the online Registration Form. This program is on a first come, first served basis. Late applications will not be accepted, and submission of an application does not guarantee acceptance. The registration form can be found at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/mopd/html/poh/application.shtml>.

For more information, please contact The Mayor's Office for People with Disabilities by dialing 311 or through our website at www.nyc.gov/mopd.

Disaster Housing Assistance Program (DHAP)

- FEMA and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) have executed an interagency agreement to assist Hurricane Sandy survivors who are struggling to find housing as they rebuild their lives.
- The Disaster Housing Assistance Program (DHAP) will provide temporary rental payments directly to landlords to help families displaced by the storm.
- Disaster survivors do not need to apply separately for DHAP-Sandy-NY. FEMA will determine eligibility and refer eligible disaster survivors to HUD.
- HUD, working with state and local housing agencies, will administer the program.
- The purpose of implementing DHAP-Sandy-NY is to assist those who have not been able to reach their permanent housing solution within FEMA's standard forms of assistance.
- Since DHAP-Sandy-NY is a form of direct assistance, monthly rental payments provided to landlords are not deducted from the FEMA Individual Assistance $31,900 maximum grant.
- Eligibility for DHAP is based on the following conditions:
 - ✓ The applicant is not able to transition to sustainable housing through FEMA's standard forms of assistance, or
 - ✓ The applicant has attempted to locate a rental property within a reasonable commuting distance but has been unable to do so because of factors outside their control, and
 - ✓ The applicant provides substantial evidence documenting a permanent housing plan.
- Applicants who are determined to be potentially eligible will be contacted by FEMA. If they are interested in the program and found to be preliminarily eligible, a FEMA representative will meet with them to review the program and its requirements. Eligible applicants will then be referred to HUD for entry into DHAP.
- Once applicants are in DHAP, they will no longer receive rental assistance from FEMA. HUD will begin to provide rental assistance directly to the applicant's landlord. A portion of the rent will be contributed by the applicant directly to the landlord.
- Participants will be required to participate in Disaster Case Management, which links disaster survivors with case managers who help them develop and implement a Disaster Recovery Plan.

Hope Coalition America

HOPE Coalition America is the only financial emergency preparedness and recovery service in the country. Through partnerships with industry leaders in a wide range of industries spanning banking, financial services, insurance, social and community services, we provide financial and economic assistance to those affected by natural disasters.

On April 27th, we renewed our partnership with FEMA to strengthen and expand the financial counseling resources available to help individuals and families prepare for disasters and recover in the shortest possible time. Services are available across the country and work to help people recover from disaster and BE PREPARED when disaster strikes.

When a natural disaster occurs, organizations such as FEMA and the American Red Cross go to work immediately to address health, safety, and infrastructure problems. But financial issues affect far more people after a disaster than property damage or personal injury, which is where traditional national networks fall short.

Our counselors include full-time employees and volunteers from the banking, financial services and insurance industries. Through the HOPE Crisis Hotline and our on-site counseling centers, they help clients recover financially from natural disasters, foreclosures, and other emergencies.

We also provide pre-disaster preparedness planning. Download our free Emergency Financial First Aid Kit (EFFAK) or Personal Disaster Preparedness Guide (PDPG) now—and find out how prepared you are.

Services we offer include:

- Pre-disaster preparedness seminars.
- Emergency budget counseling.
- Emergency credit management.
- Assistance with deferring mortgage payments.
- Assistance communicating with your creditors.

Visiting Nurse Service of New York (VNSNY)

Post-Disaster Distress Program

The Visiting Nurse Service of New York is excited to offer a free program funded by the American Red Cross to treat post-disaster distress symptoms for survivors of Superstorm Sandy. Individuals who experience a disaster often feel intense emotions that can last long after the danger has passed. Some common post disaster reactions include fear, anxiety, anger, sadness, and guilt or shame. We will provide high quality, client-centered, strength and evidenced based care through one on one (12 weeks) and group sessions, as well as psycho-education and public education presentations.

Our staff are trained in Cognitive Behavior Therapy-Post Disaster Distress (CBT-PD) by the developer of the treatment, Dr. Jessica Hamblen (National Center for PTSD). This model was used after 9/11, Hurricane Katrina, Hurricane Ike and the hurricanes in Florida. The model will be used in both one on one, group and single psycho education sessions with evaluation forms to assess the effectiveness of the model. Our Social Work Assistants will also provide case management services to those who need resources in tandem with or more than our services provide.

The goal of our program is for our clients to see an improvement in their quality of life, increase their sense of peace, hope, and tap into their own resiliency and strengths. To do this we will help them identify the ways in which they think and feel that causes emotional pain and help them adapt new ways to thinking to draw in more positive emotions.

To make a referral or contact us directly and learn more about the program please call us at 1-718-888-6955. You can also email directly to Kerrv.symon@vnsny.org.

The Red Cross provides assistance based on documented disaster caused needs. It is important to remember that the Red Cross does not have the scale of resources of government. We are using the donations entrusted to us to the greatest extent possible to meet remaining needs and help ensure that people do not fall through the cracks.

Common Ground

Our mission is to strengthen individuals, families, and communities by developing and sustaining exceptional supportive and affordable housing as well as programs for homeless and other vulnerable New Yorkers.

Common Ground prioritizes individuals who historically were perceived as unreachable and “unhouseable”: those who have lived on the streets for years, who have the most debilitating mental and physical health conditions, and/or who have suffered significant adversity (childhood abuse or neglect, long-term foster care placement, traumatic military combat) that contributed to their homelessness. Despite being the primary consumers of substantial public resources, these special needs groups have been consistently marginalized or ignored by conventional outreach, shelter, and housing systems.

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program

A federal grant distributed to localities to fund neighborhood redevelopment, economic development, and community services. Eligible uses include acquisition, rehabilitation, or demolition of real estate. Any central city of an MSA, local government of over 50,000 people, or urban counties with at least 200,000 people automatically qualifies for formula-based funds from HUD. The formula allocation for CDBG funds is based on poverty levels, population, growth lag, overcrowding in housing, and the age of housing. Once receiving funding, the recipient must ensure that at least 70 percent of all funds are used for people with low or moderate incomes. NYS HCR oversees the distribution of a state-wide CDBG program, while the City of New York receives a direct allocation from HUD. About 60 percent of the City’s allocation is used by HPD for housing services.

Directory of New York City Affordable Housing Programs

New York City has a long history of government intervention in residential housing markets, resulting in more than 175 affordable housing programs reflecting a wide range of goals and strategies. The Directory of New York City Affordable Housing Programs (Beta) catalogues this remarkable variety for those who develop, work with, study or live in the housing affected by these programs.

FEMA housing resources

The Federal Emergency Management Agency and our federal partners are working closely with the state to address the housing needs of New Yorkers displaced by Hurricane Sandy. Our priority is to help survivors move out of hotel rooms and into apartments or their safe, repaired homes. FEMA has identified rentals in the area damaged by Hurricane Sandy and is working to match survivors to that available housing. A goal is to place survivors in rentals within their neighborhoods, or as close as possible to those areas. This not only is better for survivors, it helps neighborhood businesses.

Our goal is to maximize the number of people who are able to move back into their own homes; and for them to get home as quickly as possible. There are several programs in place to help ease this housing crunch in a place where there is always a housing crunch.

Rental Assistance

Applicants with a need for housing because of storm damage to their dwelling may be eligible for a FEMA temporary rental grant. This assistance may be provided while applicants are working to accomplish a permanent housing plan.

Returning to a permanent home is a significant milestone on the road to recovery. FEMA rental assistance may last for up to 18 months from the date of declaration. So it's important for survivors to have a permanent housing plan.

FEMA has a Housing Portal at asd.fema.gov/inter/hportal/home.htm to help applicants find rental units. In addition to apartments or homes normally available, the portal identifies units provided by our federal partners.

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

- <http://portal.hud.gov/hudportal/HUD>

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, led by Secretary Shaun Donovan, is also playing an active role in providing temporary housing to storm-displaced families. HUD has identified thousands of available units in HUD-assisted housing and is getting that information to displaced individuals, primarily at Disaster Recovery Centers.

The Department has also increased fair market rental allowances to make it easier for displaced Section 8 voucher recipients to find replacement housing, and is allowing owners of HUD-funded senior developments the flexibility to open up vacant units to storm evacuees.

Secretary Donovan was also instrumental in bringing together New York City and State government officials and real estate trade groups in the aftermath of the storm to find housing for New York displaced families. This has led to a government and private sector partnership that gives displaced families greater options in finding vacant apartments that are affordable and safe.

Our overriding concern is to ensure the public health and safety of our fellow New Yorkers, to assess the condition of assets under our purview, to continue to carry out housing code inspection services citywide, and to ensure that our construction and demolition sites are secure. Additionally, we have been inspecting conditions at city-owned buildings under HPD's jurisdiction and will continue to do so.

FEMA Flood Map Information

To give homeowners and builders the best current information on flood risk, on June 10, 2013, FEMA released Preliminary Work Maps for New York City. These maps are an interim product in the development of preliminary Flood Insurance Rate Maps (FIRMs) and reflect the results of the ongoing coastal flood hazard study and more precise wave modeling. This information is considered the best available flood hazard data and replaces the Advisory Base Flood Elevation (ABFE) maps that were initially prepared for rebuilding and recovery efforts in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy.

To facilitate recovery and rebuilding, the City has made accommodations in zoning regulations and upgrades to the Building Code so that new construction can build to these higher standards.

Substantially Damaged or Substantial Improvements : Any building classified as substantially damaged or as a substantial improvement must be elevated to fully comply with the flood zone regulations for new buildings in Appendix G of the 2008 NYC Building Code. For residential buildings, this includes elevating the habitable spaces and filling in the basement or cellar.

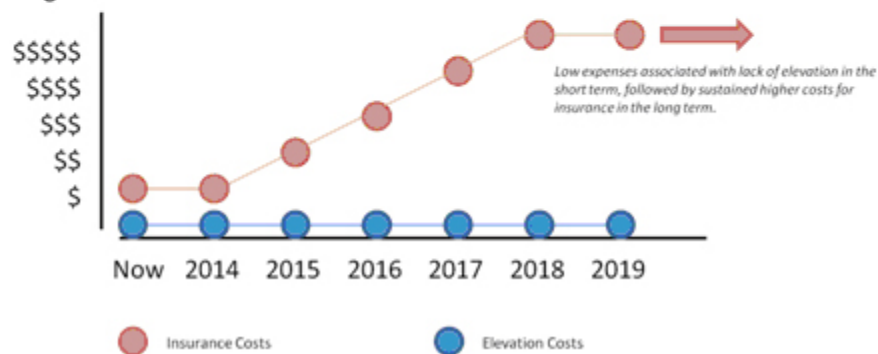

NY Superstorm Sandy Recovery Resources

Other: Buildings not classified as substantially damaged or as a substantial improvement are not required to elevate/reconstruct the entire building according to the flood zone regulations for new buildings in Appendix G. However, the Department of Buildings strongly recommends that homeowners comply with these regulations, as well as relocate essential equipment and electrical panels above flood levels wherever possible. It is also important to note that flood insurance premiums are based on flood risk. Property owners can save money by reducing their vulnerability to flooding.

Neighborhood Revitalization NYC (NRNYC) Mold Treatment Program

What is the NRNYC Mold Treatment Program?

A new initiative paid for with private funds from the Mayor's Fund to Advance New York City, the Robin Hood Foundation and the American Red Cross and developed in partnership with the city. The Program will directly help approximately 2,000 households in affected areas deal with mold left behind by water damage from Hurricane Sandy. Neighborhood Revitalization NYC will coordinate mold treatment work. The treatment work will be conducted by environmental consultants, contractors and not-for-profit organizations, staffed by volunteers.

How do I apply for the program?

Eligible homeowners referred by NRNYC's partner network can register by calling 1-855-740-MOLD (6653). This call center will operate Monday – Friday from 9am to 6pm. In addition, 311, New York City's main source of government information and non-emergency services, will have information and can connect homeowners with the hotline.

How does a person qualify for the program?

There are two qualifying factors: the condition of the property (extent of water damage) and household income. Priority will be given to households with income up to 120% of the area median income (AMI); however, households up to 175% may qualify. Special consideration will be made to elderly homeowners under 120% AMI.

INCOME ELIGIBILITY BY % OF AREA MEDIAN INCOME (AMI)
OF THE NEW YORK CITY REGION

	120%	175%
Family of four	$99,600	$145,250
Family of three	$89,640	$130,725
Family of two	$79,680	$116,200
Individual	$69,720	$101,675

NY Superstorm Sandy Recovery Resources

Is there a cost for the program?

This program will be free for qualified participants.

What is the process once a homeowner applies?

After a homeowner applies, NRNYC will review the application and notify the homeowner whether they qualify for the program. Homeowners who qualify will be scheduled for an environmental assessment of their property. If the environmental specialist determines that the mold treatment needs meet the criteria of the program, mold treatment will be scheduled. In addition, an environmental specialist will conduct a final assessment of the property.

Can residents who are not homeowners get mold treatment assistance?

Buildings with 1 to 4 units can qualify. The applicant must be the owner of the property to qualify for this program. The homeowner must complete and sign an access agreement to receive services. Renters can call 311 if they are having difficulties getting their landlord to address mold issues in their house or apartment.

What other mold treatment resources are available to homeowners?

Homeowners who want to learn more about mold and how to remove it themselves can register for free mold treatment training and obtain a free mold supply kit. The trainings are supported by the Mayor's Fund to Advance New York City and led by CUNY School of Public Health at Hunter College and the University of Medicine and Dentistry, New Jersey (UMDNJ) School of Public Health, in coordination with the NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH). Trainings will take place in Brooklyn, Queens, and Staten Island. Homeowners can learn more about this program at www.nyc.gov.

Resources for nonprofits impacted by Hurricane Sandy

The following resources continue to be available for nonprofits affected by Hurricane Sandy:

NYC Nonprofit Recovery Loan/Grant Program

The New York City Nonprofit Recovery Loan and Grant Program is designed to provide critical funds in the coming months to bridge the gap between expenditures needed to support the recovery from Hurricane Sandy and anticipated revenues such as grants, pledges, contract reimbursements, FEMA and insurance payments.

In all cases priority is given to nonprofit organizations that are located in and/or providing services in the areas most affected by Hurricane Sandy. Please read the description of each program to see which one fits your organization's circumstances.

The Loan/Grant Program is for organizations that have applied to FEMA, with the expectation that FEMA will, at some point, be making an award. These nonprofits may also be receiving funds from private insurance and/or an SBA Loan. The amount of the loan/grant is determined by tangible property damage. The loan portion will be made against reimbursements expected from private insurance, SBA loans, FEMA and government contracts. Loans will be interest-free.

The Nonprofit Recovery Loan/Grant Program is administered by the Fund for the City of New York. The grant component of the program is supported by the Mayor's Fund to Advance New York City and the loan program is supported by funders including the Ford Foundation, Capital One Bank, and The New York Community Trust.

Sandy VIP Program

Since Hurricane Sandy, New York Cares has provided thousands of volunteers to help with immediate needs - from food and clothing distribution to mucking out homes. We believe that volunteers can continue to play a critical role in helping non-profit and community organizations meet their missions and help our city recover. As part of our on-going Disaster Response and Recovery efforts, New York Cares is launching our Sandy Volunteer Impact Partnership (VIP) Program in the model of our tested city-wide VIP Program.

Sandy VIP seeks to improve the capacity of impacted non-profit and government organizations including New York City public schools by utilizing and integrating volunteers. Sandy VIP partners will work with New York Cares for one year to create a volunteer engagement plan, including beginning new volunteer programs and engaging local volunteers. This program is provided at no cost to the Community Partner.

As part of this program, New York Cares will:

- Assign a dedicated Program Manager to provide ongoing programmatic support as well as volunteers for one-time events;
- Meet monthly with Sandy VIP program leads at Community Partners;
- Recruit local volunteers;
- Perform a comprehensive assessment to identify the needs that volunteers might meet;
- Help design and implement a vision for a community space including revitalization and/or light construction (supply costs included);
- Help design and implement on-going programs for volunteers to work with or alongside community residents, clients, students, and others for the long-term benefit of the affected region (supply costs included);
- Provide training on volunteer management, program design and evaluation; and,
- Convene quarterly meetings of partner staff members to share best practices, solicit feedback, and provide collegial support to agency staff.

Community Development Block Grants (CDBG)

The federal government uses a program called Community Development Block Grants (CDBG) to provide communities with resources that address a wide range of needs. These funds are flexible and help cities, counties and states recover from disasters – particularly in low income communities. Some of the federal aid for areas affected by Hurricane Sandy will come through this program in the form of Community Development Block Grant- Disaster Recovery funding. There will be several rounds of CDBG-DR funding. NYC's initial award is for $1.77 billion. The chart below summarizes how the City plans to use this money.

Disaster Case Management Program (DCMP)

An organized, effective long-term recovery process is needed when survivors' personal resources, insurance, and government grants and loans are insufficient to meet their recovery needs. Potential clients should be referred to Disaster Case Management if they have disaster-caused needs not met by the referring organization's program(s).

Sandy DCM Referral Line: 855-258-0483

Background

New York State, with funding from the FEMA, is providing disaster case management (DCM) services for New Yorkers with unmet needs arising from Hurricane Sandy. Catholic Charities Community Services, Archdiocese of New York is managing the DCM program, as it did following Hurricanes Irene and Lee.

The DCM program is designed to provide a locally based disaster case manager for New Yorkers with unmet needs related to Hurricane Sandy. By funding a coordinated network of community-based agencies, New York State hopes to provide easy access to support for residents seeking help and to avoid duplication of services.

Catholic Charities is subcontracting with locally based not-for-profits to provide direct services through October 2014 in the following counties: Bronx, Kings, Nassau, New York, Orange, Putnam, Queens, Richmond, Rockland, Suffolk, Sullivan, Ulster, and Westchester.

Eligibility

In order to be eligible for the DCM program, a person must have an unmet need that arose from or was exacerbated by Hurricane Sandy. Those who are ineligible for FEMA or other assistance programs are still eligible for the DCM program as long as they have a verifiable unmet need related to the storm.

NYC Build it Back

is the City program to assist homeowners, landlords and tenants in the five boroughs whose primary homes were damaged by Hurricane Sandy. Funded by the Federal Community Development Block Grant – Disaster Recovery (<http://www.nyc.gov/html/cdbg/html/home/home.shtml>) (CDBG-DR) Bill passed by Congress, the goal of NYC Build it Back is to help affected residents return to safe, sustainable housing by addressing unmet housing recovery needs .

To Get Started:

Register online:

- <https://www.nyc.gov/apps/311universalintake/form.htm?serviceName=CHALL+Build+it+Back> or call 311 and ask for NYC Build it Back. Once you register, begin to gather necessary documents from this list

- http://www.nyc.gov/html/recovery/downloads/pdf/prepare_your_documents.pdf

The City will schedule an in-person appointment between the applicant and a Housing Recovery Specialist. The Housing Recovery Specialist will act as the applicant’s primary point of contact through the application submission process until the applicant either selects an assistance option or is deemed ineligible. Applicants will be contacted based upon order of priority.

Options available through the NYC Build it Back program

NYC Build it Back provides several pathways to help you return to permanent, sustainable housing: Repair, Rebuild, Reimbursement and Acquisition. These are the options your Housing Recovery Specialist will discuss with you if you are eligible for funding:

- Repair: If your home needs repairs, NYC Build it Back will assign a contractor to you to complete the work, or you can use your own contractor to do the work, following program guidelines and cost restrictions. NYC Build it Back will make payments directly to the contractor.
- Rebuild: If you need to rebuild your home, you may choose from several customizable model homes designed specifically for your community. You may also choose your own contractor to build one for you, following program guidelines and within cost restrictions. NYC Build it Back will make payments directly to the contractor.
- Reimbursement: If you have already spent your own funds to make repairs to your home, you may be eligible for reimbursement. Please maintain all receipts for work done and items purchased.

NY Superstorm Sandy Recovery Resources

- Acquisition/Buyout: You may also have the option of voluntarily selling your home to the government. New York City and New York State have been working together to determine where it makes sense to purchase properties return to undeveloped, open space (NY State Buyout Program), and where it makes sense to purchase properties which can be redeveloped to more resilient standards. Your Housing Recovery Specialist will explain those options.

Eligibility requirements for NYC Build it Back

Personal eligibility requirements include:

- Homeowners and landlords must have owned the damaged property at the time of the storm and maintained ownership in order to be eligible for assistance.
- All residential buildings which act as a primary residence (whether owner-occupied, or renter-occupied year-round) may be eligible. Owners of single or multi-family buildings (over four units), rentals, cooperatives or condominiums in the five boroughs damaged by Sandy can qualify for NYC Build It Back grants or loans
- Per federal regulations, second homes are not eligible for assistance.
- US citizenship or documented qualified alien status

Property eligibility requirements include:

Documentation of private insurance claim or settlement (if applicable)

If you've either made a private insurance claim or received a settlement for the Sandy-damaged structure, you will be asked to provide all of the following:

- Amount claimed/received for structure
- Insurance company name
- Agent's name and phone number
- Policy date
- Policy number

Information for Landlords of Multi-family Dwellings

NYC Build it Back has a Multi-family Program designed to assist owners of properties with five or more apartments within all five boroughs affected by Hurricane Sandy. Rental properties, condominiums, and cooperative buildings are all potentially eligible. Financial assistance will be provided as a forgivable loan to cover unmet need for rehabilitation of buildings that sustained damage as a result of Sandy. In addition, the City intends to strengthen the housing infrastructure by identifying opportunities to increase resiliency against future events.

The Program's objectives include:

- Assist properties affected by Sandy by funding the unmet need for the rehabilitation of eligible multi-family buildings. Work funded may include repairing damage to common spaces, mechanical systems, and individual apartments. "Unmet need" is the difference between the total cost of the repairs, less any amount paid to the property owner from any other sources, including insurance.
- Help multi-family buildings affected by Sandy by improving the resilience of their properties while restoring their buildings.
- Prioritize assistance to NYC's most vulnerable populations, including residents with low to moderate income, and properties which suffered the most severe damage.

Owners and property managers of multifamily properties and representatives of cooperative and condominium properties are encouraged to register with the NYC Build it Back program. City representatives will guide owners through the process including determining the building's eligibility, developing a scope of work to be funded under the program and overseeing construction.

NYC Community Development Block Grant - Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) Action Plan

New Yorkers living and working in communities affected by Hurricane Sandy continue to face many challenges as they rebuild their homes, restore their businesses and get their lives back to normal.

NY Superstorm Sandy Recovery Resources

On January 29, 2013, President Obama signed into law the “Disaster Relief Appropriations Act, 2013” (Public Law 113-2) which provides $16 billion in Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) funds to repair and restore areas affected by Hurricane Sandy.

The City's first round of CDBG-DR funds is $1.77 billion. On May 10, 2013, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development approved the City's partial Action Plan ("Action Plan A" – <http://www.nyc.gov/html/cdbg/html/plan/read.shtml>). The plan details how we will use this funding to help New Yorkers rebuild their homes, businesses and communities. We spoke with elected officials, community members, and home and business owners to create a plan that will best serve those recovering from Hurricane Sandy.

- <http://www.nyc.gov/html/cdbg/html/about/about.shtml>

CDBG-DR Action Plan Amendment 1

The City has released its first amendment to the Community Development Block Grant - Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) Action Plan. This plan details how the City will spend the initial round of $1.77 billion in Federal disaster aid through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to help with recovery from Hurricane Sandy. The proposed CDBG-DR Action Amendment 1 is available here: <http://www.nyc.gov/html/cdbg/html/plan/read.shtml>.

NYC temporary rental subsidy program

The City, through the Department of Housing Preservation and Development, will be administering a temporary rental subsidy program to serve a very limited number of Sandy-displaced households earning less than 50% of the area median income, who have not already been offered placements through public housing or Section 8. Under this temporary disaster assistance program, households are required to pay 30% of their income toward rent. Registration for rental assistance is through the 311 NYC Build it Back intake process. Funding is limited and households currently residing in the city's hotel system will be prioritized.

Resources for Renters

Resources for renters affected by Sandy vary by household income. In order to determine which programs may be helpful for you, please use the chart below to determine whether your household income is below 50% of Area Median Income (AMI), between 50%-80%, or greater than 80% of AMI.

Family Size	50% of AMI Threshold for Rental Subsidy	80% of AMI Threshold for Housing Referral
1	$30,100	$48,100
2	$34,400	$55,000
3	$38,700	$61,850
4	$42,950	$68,700
5	$46,400	$74,200
6	$49,850	$79,700
7	$53,300	$85,200
8	$56,700	$90,700

NY Superstorm Sandy Recovery Resources

Information for renters at or below 50% of AMI

If you are a renter displaced by Hurricane Sandy, and your household income is less than 50% of the Area Median Income (AMI), you may be eligible for a temporary rental subsidy for up to 2 years by registering with the NYC Build it Back program. The program is called Temporary Disaster Assistance Program, or TDAP.

Households are required to pay 30% of their income toward rent. Funding is extremely limited, and households currently residing in the city's hotel system will be prioritized. Initial income eligibility will be determined through the central Build it Back 311 intake process. Income and other eligibility factors will be further reviewed and confirmed through the TDAP program at the Department of Housing Preservation and Development.

Documentation requirements for rental assistance include, but are not limited to:

- Proof of damage and displacement as a result of Hurricane Sandy

Social Services Block Grants (SSBG)

Available for:

- Social, health, and mental health services/costs resulting from Superstorm Sandy
- Repair, renovation and rebuilding of health care facilities, mental hygiene facilities, child care facilities, and other social services facilities

Applications due: Friday, August 30, 2013 by 3:00 pm

With its devastating power, Superstorm Sandy impacted the lives of millions of New Yorkers and caused damage and suffering in hundreds of communities across the State. The storm and its aftermath exacerbated the needs of the State's most vulnerable residents and raised additional critical needs. New York State's health and human service providers have met the daunting challenge of caring for Superstorm Sandy's victims while simultaneously striving to address their own needs for repairs and resources, or in some cases working to reopen after being forced to shut their doors due to the storm.

To address the needs of these critical health and human service providers and the populations they serve, the State of New York will distribute $200,034,600 in federal Superstorm Sandy Social Services Block Grant (Sandy SSBG) funding through a public and transparent solicitation for proposals. Sandy SSBG resources are dedicated to covering necessary expenses resulting from Superstorm Sandy, including social, health and mental health services for individuals, and for repair, renovation and rebuilding of health care facilities, mental hygiene facilities, child care facilities and other social services facilities.

NY Superstorm Sandy Recovery Resources

New York will allocate Sandy SSBG funding to address four Focus Areas:

1. Repair, renovation and rebuilding;
2. Uncompensated operational costs, including provision of critical services during/after Superstorm Sandy;
3. Ongoing support and social services for those impacted by Superstorm Sandy; and
4. Flexibility to ensure that additional eligible social service needs resulting from Superstorm Sandy can be addressed.

These resources will help New York State fulfill the five broad goals of the Social Services Block Grant:

1. To provide economic self-support;
2. To promote self-sufficiency;
3. To prevent or remedy neglect, abuse, or exploitation of children and adults;
4. To provide for community-based care, home-based care, or other forms of less intensive care; and
5. To provide institutional care when other forms of care are not appropriate.

Sandy SSBG funding must be used for costs that are

1. directly related to Superstorm Sandy and populations that were impacted by it; and
2. not reimbursed and not currently eligible for reimbursement by the federal government (including FEMA), private insurance and any other public or private funding sources. Duplication of benefits is prohibited.

Eligible costs include the traditional SSBG-funded services:

- Adoption Services
- Case Management Services
- Congregate Meals
- Counseling Services
- Day Care—Adults
- Day Care—Children

- Other Services

The Sandy SSBG supplemental appropriation also allows funding to be used for:

- Renovation, repair and rebuilding services
- Health care and mental health services, including costs associated with service delivery as well as the operational cost of sustaining the ability to provide such services in order to subsequently reopen facilities entirely shut down as a result of Superstorm Sandy

Based on the determination of the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Sandy SSBG funding may not be granted to compensate a facility or provider for revenue loss due to the impact of Superstorm Sandy.

Small businesses

Business Relief

The City of New York has implemented a series of initiatives to help businesses recover from the devastating effects of Hurricane Sandy, including the NYC Hurricane Sandy Loan & Grant Program, NYC Restoration Business Acceleration Team (RBAT), and more.

Business loan and grant program

The City of New York and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development are providing small businesses in New York City with disaster recovery loans and grants as part of the $293 million allocated for business recovery through the Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery Program. For more information and to find out what you need to apply, visit the NYC Business Solutions website. NYC Business Solutions Account Managers are on hand to answer any questions. You can contact an account manager online, or by visiting your local NYC Business Solutions Center.

Coordinating permitting and inspections to open up your business

The City of New York has established the NYC Restoration Business Acceleration Team (RBAT) to assist businesses affected by Hurricane Sandy by coordinating the services, permitting and inspections needed to reopen as soon as possible. RBAT builds upon the expertise of the New Business Acceleration Team (NBAT) which has helped more than 1,400 businesses employing more than 16,000 people open more quickly—in many instances cutting in half the time required to open their doors. To date, RBAT has directly assisted 126 businesses. RBAT client managers serve as a single point-of-contact for impacted businesses, providing necessary information, coordinating scheduling with safety and regulatory agencies, and troubleshooting problems. For further information, visit the RBAT homepage.

Fee relief for business recovery

To help New York City businesses impacted by Hurricane Sandy, a new local law waives various City fees required for rebuilding, recovery and operation of businesses. A business may apply for a fee waiver by October 31, 2013, and may have fees waived until December 31, 2013. For more information:

All Hands Volunteers

All Hands is doing mucking, gutting, and mold treatment. Our mucking and gutting is generally in support and preparation for our mold treatment, though by no means exclusively. We are currently targeting 100 houses for mold treatment from January 7 to July 7. It is important to note that we're not offering professional mold remediation or certification of our process. If a client needs such certification for a contractor or insurance, I would direct them to the Better Business Bureau's listing of environmental services on Long Island: <http://www.bbb.org/new-york-city/accredited-business-guide/environmental-testing-consulting/4040>.

Our requirements to be able to treat for mold in a house are:

- There must be electricity to the house. The house doesn't need to have been rewired, but there must be power to, if not past, the breaker panel.
- The house must be securable. This is typically by locking the doors and windows and putting a realtor's key box on the door for our teams to access the house. In some cases, if residents are present full-time, this isn't necessary, but is still our preference
- During cold weather, the house must have heat. If it is above about 45 degrees, we can heat the house with our portable heaters.
- The homeowner must be willing to let us gut the house to the extent necessary for mold treatment to be effective. This varies from house to house, but usually includes bathrooms, drywall to four feet or eight feet, all furniture and possessions, and often floors.

We don't have formal financial criteria or vetting in place. Our intent is, by working in and reaching out to low-income areas we will reach the most vulnerable.

We're working in and around Long Beach, Island Park, Oceanside, East Rockaway, and Freeport. We have worked as far as Wantagh, Massapequa, South Hempstead, Valley Stream, and essentially anywhere within about a half hour drive of our base in Long Beach.

Our turnaround time to call back homeowners is pretty fast, usually the same day or the next day. Our turnaround for the assessor to visit is also fast, usually one to three days. Our turnaround for work to start is usually one to two weeks after assessment. Gutting can take anywhere from half a day to six days. Treating for mold, including drying, can take from 48 hours to eight days.

To refer cases to us, your agents or clients can call (516) 362-6493, or email sandyresponse@hands.org.

If your residential property was affected by Superstorm Sandy, Hurricane Irene or Tropical Storm Lee, you may be eligible for assistance to address your remaining unmet housing recovery need(s) in a variety of categories, including home repair/rehabilitation, mitigation/elevation and/or buyouts. Assistance may also be available to owners of rental properties in the impacted region. Receipt of funding under this program may not duplicate disaster-related assistance you have already received or may be eligible for from other federal, state, local and/or private sources of disaster-related assistance, including, but not limited to, homeowners and/or flood insurance proceeds.

Recreate NY Multifamily Housing Mitigation/Elevation Grant Program

Funding may be available for residential property owners in disaster-declared counties whose property was damaged or destroyed by Superstorm Sandy, Hurricane Irene and/or Tropical Storm Lee. Funding will be provided to assist property owners to cover damages that are outstanding after federal, state, local and private sources have been exhausted. The assistance is targeted to mitigation assistance of affordable housing to elevate homes or key systems. Affordability and flood insurance requirements may be placed on all assisted units following completion of mitigation activities. These requirements and program parameters are subject to federal approval and may change. Funding for this program will not be distributed by the federal government and made available to the State of New York and its partners until federal agencies have approved the program discussed in this document.

Recreate NY Smart Home Buyout Program

Funding for buy-outs may be available for homeowners in disaster declared counties. Funding will be provided to give residents the opportunity to leave their properties through a voluntary buyout program for homes that were substantially damaged and/or located within designated buyout areas where damage occurred.

Buyouts are strictly voluntary. No homeowners are ever forced to relinquish their property, but homeowners who decide not to participate in the buyout may be required to take risk reduction measures, such as elevating their homes and purchasing insurance coverage through the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP), if locally available.

More information will be available within the coming weeks.
